National Training Systems Association

THE VOICE OF THE TRAINING AND SIMULATION INDUSTRY
WHAT IS NTSA?

Founded in 1988 as a non-profit Corporation, the National Training Systems Association provides the training, simulation, mission planning, related support systems and training services industries a recognized, focused, formal organization to represent and promote their business interests in the market place.

Through Industry forums and association sponsored events, NTSA assists these groups in communicating the full capability and broad characteristics of all of the elements of training systems and mission planning to include associated support services. NTSA also fosters relationships between the training industry, planners and acquisition agencies regarding requirements, procurement issues and policies.

Companies in the Simulation, Training, Mission Planning/Rehearsal, and Support Services Industry are represented through membership in NTSA, an affiliate of the National Defense Industrial Association (NDIA).

ASSOCIATION OBJECTIVES

- Represent to government the non-partisan business interests of the simulation, training, mission planning/rehearsal and support services.
- Increase the value of training systems and services provided by industry and government.
- Inform and educate the legislative policymaking acquisition and regulatory functions of government, including Congress, the DoD and other agencies.
- Provide direct contact between acquisition activities and the industry to better communicate with regard to procurement issues and policies.
- Promote the highest level of responsibility and business ethics among Association members.
- Act as a clearing house for business policy, ethics and practices affecting industry.
- Provide industry-wide bulletins and news reports.
- Actively participate with, inform, and support the training, mission planning/rehearsal related activities of other industry associations such as AIA, EIA, ITEA and other industrial divisions of NDIA.
